Key Projects

Angel Gardens, Enfield

Complete: 2015

Scope: Fundraising, Community Engagement, Concept, Planning, Tender, On site

Client: LB of Enfield (Regeneration)

Angel Gardens is a 1.5ha new public park situated adjacent to Angel Road train station. Challenges included remediation of contaminated land and watercourse. The design includes new footpaths and cycle links to the station, play areas for all ages, a free running trail and a community garden.

Holmesdale Open Space, Enfield

Complete: 2013

Scope: Fundraising, Community Engagement, Concept, Tender, On site.

Client: LB of Enfield (Highways)

Regeneration of a 700m long open space on top of the Holmesdale Tunnel. Constraints included loading limitations and shallow soil depths. Key features include substantial new planting areas, communal gardens, additional footpaths and playful granite cubes to mark the Enfield/ Broxbourne boundary.

Ponders End Park, Enfield

Complete: 2012

Scope: Community Engagement, Concept, Tender, On site

Client: LB of Enfield (Regeneration)

Park improvement scheme including a new market space, water feature, lighting, additional footpaths, cycle links, large planting areas and mature tree planting. Substantial community engagement work took place and much of the planting was done by local residents overseen by the design team.

Enfield Play Pathfinder

Complete: 2011

Scope: Concept, Planning, Tender, On site

Client: Enfield Play Partnership

The Play England funded Play Pathfinder programme consisted of 26 new and improved natural playgrounds. These were delivered in stages over a two year period and included the Arnos Park Play Area which won the Street Design Award for 'Best Children's Play Space' in 2012.

Primrose Hill, Huddersfield

Complete: 2009

Scope: Concept, Tender

Client: Kirklees Council

Architect: Cartwright Pickard

Creation of a new home zone in an existing residential area in Huddersfield. The project included high quality shared surfaces throughout the site, revised parking solutions, street tree planting, a new public square, play area and improvements to existing footpaths and play and sports facilities.

Ponderosa Eco Village, Heckmondwike

Complete: 2009

Scope: Outline Planning

Client: Howard Cook Builders Ltd

Architect: Cartwright Pickard

A proposed new housing development on a complex 9ha greenbelt site which includes a woodland and a former quarry. Preparation of a landscape strategy and site masterplan for and outline planning application together with input into the associated BREEAM assessment.
